TEMPERANCE COLUMN

Conducted by the W. C. T. U.

Temperance Sunday was observed at Mt. Morris, after the lesson Mrs. Duesbach, pres. of the W. C. T. U. conducted a program.

An up to date doctor was called to see a very sick man. He said "He strike at the very root of my disease" and the doctor took his man and smashed the whiskey bottles by his side.

The Dr. was asked by a young man if he didn't think cigar smoking weakened the brain. The Dr. replied, "No it indicates a weak brain."

When those ladies of Blue Star put their ballots to light the sabbath I want to help. I've always been sorry I could not help to vote the sabbath out, but as the past election shows so many votes not counted, to John District, Ill. there are over 3 thousand votes missing.

Ever Carthage forgot a pile of 30 ballots and didn't get them in the return, but a hatchet in the hands of a Carthage will count every time.

Yours for saloon destruction, MAY SWINE MATTHEWS.
